I'm not an expert for early war but shouldnt Russians be using Mosin Nagant instead of K98 ?

Besides from that, ragdolls are glitchy and they fly everywhere when you shoot someone. Gun sounds are so low you can barely hear them

Is it worth a try ? Yes why not its free Is it worth investing hours into it? No

. Man, that graphics are excelent and sceneries are enjoyable, satisfying, relaxing and so on. Never did many screenshots in one game tho. Ofc there are some cons - slow running, sudden fps drop and blinking. But all those will be fixed in future updates, I hope.. My name is Van, I'm an artist, I'm a performance artist. I'm hired to people to fulfill their fantasies, their deep dark fantasies. I was gonna be a movie star y'know, modeling and acting. After a hundred and two additions and small parts I decided y'know I had enough, Then I got in to Escort world. The client requests contain a lot of fetishes, so I just decided to go y'know... full o³Mastero³ and change my entire house into a dungeon... o³Dungeono³Mastero³ now with a full dungeon in my house and It's going really well. Fisting is 300 bucks and usually the guy is pretty much hard on pop to get really relaxed y'know and I have this long latex glove that goes all the way up to my armpit and then I put on a surgical latex glove up to my wrist and just lube it up and it's a long process y'know to get your whole arm up there but it's an intense feeling for the other person I think for myself too, you go in places that even though it's physical with your hand but for some reason it's also more emotional it's more psychological too and we both get you know to the same place it's really strange at the same time and I find sessions like that really exhausting. I don't know I feel kinda naked because I am looking at myself for the first time, well not myself but this aspect of my life for the first time and it's been harsh... three to five years already? I never thought about it... Kinda sad I feel kinda sad right now, I don't know why. Fun, easy to play, hard to master old school experience.. when i tried to launch it my computer would just crash

Follow our curator page "First Person Exploration and Puzzle Games" for more games like this!Basically the same as "We Were Here" (which is free), but buggier.

The in-game radio didn't work well, so we had to use discord to communicate.

The first puzzle is artificially difficult because the game lies to you, so you need to guess the correct solution. The second puzzle is difficult only because it's broken; half the time the water doesn't stop rising when it's supposed to (and stays risen even after resurrecting). After several more poorly-designed puzzles, we eventually gave up because the riddles+tables puzzle appeared to be completely broken (the items you need to pick up are in a random order, unrelated to the order given in the book)

I love this genre, but both the puzzle-design and the programming are too poorly done to recommend this game. I'd recommend instead checking out similar multiplayer puzzlers: We Were Here, We Were Here Too, and Last Will.. If your the type of person that's into Proper animal simulation games. It's nothing like those crappy Ipad games you find that claim to be an animal simulation but is clearly not, untamed life a cougar is quite a realistic Cougar simulation. The graphics are good, and have improved alot since when it first came out. You play the role of a female cougar, which you get to pick out of quite a few colors. You start out in search of a mate. This is the only time that the males are Friendly to the female. Infact on my first try I sat and watched several males fight eachother over the right to mate with the female cougar. Once the strongest male won, I allowed him to do the 'Deed'. After falling pregnant, i started searching for a den to give birth in, catching prey and avoiding hunters along the way. When i found a place i liked, I give birth to 3 cubs. They were small and slow, but adorable. I left them at the den to search for food and to mark my territory to keep rival females at bay. We stayed there, until a male had learnt of our whereabouts. And so i had to lead my cubs to safety, otherwise that male would kill them. My cubs are now on the second stage of life. They are still spotted but are able to keep up with mum. The female you begin with isn't that strong or able to run for a longer period of time. That's where the stats come in. You can gain stats and use those stats to unlock abilities. Like Longer health, Stamina and even Ouicker acceleration. I've also recently found out that the cubs have genetics from both of the parent's. So the parent's colors affect the cubs colors. Each animal reacts differently to your approach. A deer will flee, a Male deer, will also flee, but if attacked he will kick. A bison, Moose and Horse will warn you by either shaking their heads or scraping their hoof along the ground. If you get too close they attack, instead of other games where npc's automatically attack the second your in range. Predators though will attack you when in range. Specially wolves. Bears and foxes, i've caught them stalking my cubs. Eagles attack both mum and cubs. I've caught them swooping down on my cubs, i just manage to get there in time and the eagle hobbles along on the ground trying to take off. Not all of the human NPC's are alone.. That's right, some of them have backup.

Pro's

Realistic Animal behaviour. (For both Cougar's and npc's.) Realistic Cougar and animal Sounds. Quite Realistic Animations. Different Life stages for cubs. I've only witnessed 2 so far. Barely walking stage (Maybe a week or 2. Has Spots), And Cub stage(Has Spots, and can keep up with mum.) But from the website, i've seen a slightly older cub with no spots. Upgradable Cougar. (Stats) Plenty of prey to hunt and dangers to face to keep you on your toes. Game not easy, (Even on easy.) Prey is sometimes hard to Stalk and catch in normal mode. That's what Target mode is for (T) Cubs play with eachother. Day and Night cycle. The Game World is beautifully detailed.

Con's

Foggy. It's too foggy so you can't always see where your going. You can get swarmed by a lot of predators. I was attacking humans as i ended up bumping into them, since the fog made it hard to see a few feet in front of you. When i had Told my cubs to stay, and focused on the humans, a bear came out of nowhere, and attacked 1 of my cubs, then the dogs decided it would be fun to join in to. I had 1 cub left. So i had no choice to maul everyone who provoked my wrath and then reloaded my save. No weather. (Though that's probably coming in later.)

Seasons. There's no seasons. It's always spring. I wonder what it'll be like in winter. How hard it would be to survive if prey numbers dropped.

Having to shift constantly between target mode to normal mode after each fight. As when attacking in normal mode it's hard to keep sight of your prey. If in Target mode it automatically locks on for you which makes it easier. But because i'm the type of person that likes there character to be fully zoomed in, i have to keep constantly scrolling after exiting out of target mode. Though it's not a big deal as i'm getting used to it.

Killed prey despawns too quickly. At the newborn stage, i left the cubs at the den since they are far too slow to keep up with mum at that age. Well there was no food near home so i travelled for awhile. When i caught a deer, i dragged it back home only to get a few feet away from my den and have it poof. My poor cubs were starving by this time. Maybe have it where prey that have been killed have a longer time to despawn.

Things i'd hope the developer will consider is random litter numbers. Each time you always have 3 cubs. I think it would add alittle suspense to the whole "oh i wonder how many cubs i'll have this time" kind of thing.

Other than those the game is fun to play. This game is to show you all the things a cougar must face to raise offspring and survive. And it pulls it off.. I very much enjoyed this game. I just lost track of time flying around and didn't realise it had been more than an hour. It reminds me of the fun I had flying around in the birdman mode in Pilotwings 64.

There is a lot to explore on what otherwise appears to be a fairly small island, and I still feel like I missed stuff the first time around.

I would totally recommend this to anyone looking for a relaxing game to unwind to.. this game can run in windows 10, just do a little extra work. First, press win + r, then enter regedit, open files by this way HKEY_CURRENT_USER\\SOFTWARE\\KoeiTecmo\\Nobunaga12PK\\Configs. in the left side, find width and leagth bar. change the value to your current resolution. because the game is old, so it doesnt support high resolution. when the game runs, there should be a cg at the beginning, if you still can't see it, change the value of texture depth to 32, it might help.

i successfully run this game in my new win 10 system, so the game definitely can run in win10. so don't worry about it. if you have any problem that i didnt list, just ask me i am happy to give some help.

Video Review Below:

http://steamcommunity.com/sharedfiles/filedetails/?id=259104994. I want a refund. Disclaimer: First impressions after 6 hours of gameplay.

This is the football sim that I've been looking for. Growing up I would play madden, but I rarely ever played any actual games (never felt like it was real football). The only aspect I liked was franchise mode.

Pros

- Very accurate sim stats

- Real life rosters (and the ability to edit team names)

- Simulation only takes seconds for an entire season (one of my only issues with OOTP 16, the long sim times)

Cons

As other reviewers have stated, the UI from this game looks like it was made in the 90s.
 I'm not a fan of the way coaches are handled. (coach drafts every season, I'm not sure if there's a way around this and I missed it)

Overall, I would recommend this to anybody that wants an accurate NFL sim. The UI may be poor, but it doesn't hinder the experience too much. That being said, it will be frustrating to play until you get used to it. If you're willing to overlook the flaws there is much to like.
